II. Goals

- A. A small group of NSSPC members gathered to view a national broadcast of “Everyone Plays a Role in Suicide Prevention.” During the broadcast speakers encouraged groups to implement suicide prevention efforts over the next 75 days leading up to September 10 (National Suicide Prevention Day). The group came up with the following ideas.

1. Provide the suicide prevention tool kit to Nebraska H.S.
2. Look into a Governor Proclamation setting up a Suicide Prevention Day
3. Host a survivor day
4. Possibly incorporate suicide prevention into a Don't Be Sidelined Event.
5. Reach out to churches
6. Distribute rural suicide prevention tool kits to communities in need
7. Publish information in the newspaper

IV. LOSS Development Advisory Group

- A. The LOSS Walk was a success generating over $3500.00 dollars. Funds raised will assure the continued operation of the LOSS Team and also provide scholarship opportunities to team members interested in the National LOSS Conference.
